Day to Day Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Lhasa (3650 m.) from Kathmandu or through Mainland China.

Arrival in Lhasa, our guide meets you at the airport & transfer to Hotel. The drive from the Gonggar airport takes 50 min to reach Lhasa city passing through awe-inspiring tunnel. OR, the individual arriving Lhasa through train journey will reach soon by 15 min drive to Lhasa. Today, you will stay in hotel taking rest and stroll around hotel boundary in order to keep your body warm adjusting with Tibet climate. Overnight at Hotel

Day 2: Lhasa sightseeing tour.

Today first you will visit the Potala Palace of the Dalai Lama, a treasure of Tibetan culture was, till 1965 the seat of both religion and politics in Tibet and quite possibly, the singularly most important building in all Tibet. It was built in the seventh century by Tsongtsen Gampo as a fort and later renovated by the fifth Dalai Lama in the seventeenth century to its present specifications. Your next stop will be Norbulingkha the summer palace of the Dalai Lama, which was built, in the eighteenth century. Sera is an exceptional space; its white-washed walls and golden roofs speak of Tibetan Buddhism's ancient wisdom and tranquillity. Overnight at Hotel

Day 3: Lhasa sightseeing tour.

You will visit the Drepung Monastery. This is the largest monastery in the world and once housed 10,000 monks and nuns. It was built in 1419 and the second, third and fourth Dalai Lamas lived and were entombed here. Your next stop will be the Jokhang Temple. This is the holiest shrine of Tibet and houses a golden statue of the Buddha, which was brought to Tibet by the Chinese princess "Wen Chen". You then stop off at Barkhor Bazaar outside the Jokhang monastery and Tibetan museum. Barkhor Bazaar is a bustling flea market and is, generally, the place to buy souvenirs and meet other tourists. Overnight at Hotel

Day 4: Start the Bike Tour! [Approx total cycle: 105 km].

Bike up to foot of the Kamba La Pass (3700 m), we will cross Brahmaputra River and gradually ascend towards Kamba La Pass. The path follows curve way after leaving Lhasa valley with a view of wonderful landscape of Lhasa town. As per the availability in between our ride we will find the feasible accommodations to stay overnight in villages. Overnight at Local Lodge

Day 5: Cycling to Kamba-La Pass (4794 m) and descend towards Nagartse County

After breakfast in the morning, we will prepare for second day biking tour toward Nagartse county offering panoramic view of one of largest fresh water Lake of Tibet-Yamdruk Tso. Today the bike trip will be little easy as our most of trail goes downstairs and flat. [Total cycle: 55 km] Overnight at Local Lodge

Day 6: Cross Karo-La Pass (5045 m). [Total cycle: 54 km], Overnight at Guesthouse

Today we will continue the bike ride following the trail through along the side of Turquoise Lake then after we will ascend to the Karo-la high pass where you can see the magnificent glacier uphill. We will cycle further distance to near Ralung monastery for overnight stay. Overnight at Local Lodge

Day 7: Gyantse (3950 m) [Total cycle: 79 km]

Early in the morning have a breakfast, we proceed to Gyantse. Gyantse is the fourth largest city in Tibet it has assumed an important role as a military centre and market town- particularly for wool and handicrafts. Gyantse is also jewelled with ancient monasteries and stupas. We will visit the Khumbum stupa, Gyantse Dzong and Palkor Choide Monastery in Gyantse. Overnight at Hotel

Day 8: Shigatse (3900 m.) on the way visit the Shalu Monastery. [Total cycle: 94 km]

The day we head out to Shigatse. On the way, we visit Shalu Monastery. In Shigatse we visit the Tashilungpu Monastery, the official Panchen Lama's residence, built in 1447, although it did not really become the seat of the Panchen Lama until almost 200 years later. Overnight at Hotel

Day 9: Gyachung Monastery 4100m. [Total cycle: 75 km]

Today onwards we are leaving town region and go to the mountain region. The way will go gradually ascending and remote area onwards. We will even visit Natang Monastery on the way. However, we will find small villages with typical Tibetan style in between our route. And then finally after crossing small high pass Tra-La (4050 m) we reach our camp side near Gyachung Monastery where we will stay overnight in local Lodge. Overnight at Guesthouse

Day 10: Lhatse, enroute leads over the Yulong pass (4520m), [Total cycle: 95 km]
