You will be met at Gonggar Airport by your Tibetan guide. After immigration formalities, you will be driven to Lhasa (3650 meters). It takes around 45 minutes to reach the old city. On the way, you'll be greeted with Nie Tang Buddha – a Buddha image engraved in the mountain face. After checking in at your hotel, you are advised to take rest and take it easy. Drink plenty of fluids and let your body get used to Lhasa's high altitude. Overnight at Hotel

Day 4: Sightseeing in Lhasa (3650 m)

After breakfast, you will be briefed on the day's program. An experienced guide will take you on a tour to Sera Monastery, Norbulinkha and the Barkhor Square. At the famous Sera Monastery, you will get an insight into the important aspects of Tibetan Buddhism. You pay a visit to Norbulinkha, the summer retreat of the Dalai Lama. Completed in 1956, the handsome building is ornately decorated with Tibetan carvings and paintings. Jokhang temple provides yet another glimpse of the rich Tibetan cultural heritage. You will also get the chance to stroll around the busy Barkhor Square, the nerve centre of Lhasa. After the day's tour, you will be escorted back to your hotel.

Day 5: Sightseeing in Lhasa (3650 m)

After an early breakfast, you will be escorted by your guide to the majestic Potala Palace. The imposing structure of the palace dominates the landscape of Lhasa. As you are guided through the ancient chambers of the palace, you get to see Tibetan art at its best. The Potala Palace has a vast array of intricate Tibetan murals and beautiful statues. You will also get to view the tombs of the eight Dalai Lamas. Later in the day you will visit the beautifully landscaped Drepung Monastery where you can observe nuns and monks chanting and performing religious discourses. After the day's tour is over, you are escorted back to your hotel for a well-earned rest. Note: Only a limited number of visitors are allowed inside the Potala Palace every day. So the order of sightseeing places will be decided upon by your guide. Overnight at Hotel

Day 6: Drive, Lhasa to Reting Monastery

After breakfast, drive towards north at Reting Monastery, is the ancestral monastery of the Gedain Sect of Tibetan Buddhism. The monastery is established in 1057 by Atisha's chief disciple Drom Toenpa the picturesque Lhasa River. The monastery situated in the midst of Cypress forest as it was believed that Cypress forest had developed from a tuft of hair from Drom Toenpa who buried it at the beneath of the soil. The monastery holds the Cuckoo Worshipping Ceremony on the 15th day of the fourth month in the Tibetan calendar. Besides visiting Monastery, you can walk around some villages down the Kyichu River Valley and outside monastery hiking along the Lingkhor (outside Zhuanjing route) for approx an hour.
